

Bellefonte Man Takes Bride:

Couple Honeymoon Through New England After Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Quigley Jr. are honeymooning in the New England States following their wedding at the First Baptist Church of Reading Saturday.

Rev. Earl W. Allen officiated at the ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Elizabeth A. Heller, daughter of Arthur I. Heller, Reading, and the late Mrs. Heller, and Mr. Quigley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Quigley, N. Wilson St., Bellefonte.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of Bombazine silk fashioned along princess lines with portrait neckline and short sleeves of Alencon lace accented with seed pearls and iridescents. The full skirt ended in a chapel train.

Her pearl-trimmed veil of illusion was attached to a crown of pearls and she carried a bouquet of gladioli surrounded by spathiphyllums with ivy foliage.

Matron of honor was Mrs. John R. Gallagher who wore a ballerina-length gown of taffeta, featuring a square neckline and bouffant skirt. She wore a matching taffeta headband and carried a crescent bouquet with appleblossoms.

Attending his brother as best man was Henry C. Quigley, Wilmington, Del. Ushers were William H. Foster, Woolrich; Stanley A. Ulah, Ansonia, Conn.; and Dean C. Porterfield, Simsbury, Conn.

Traditional wedding music for the ceremony was played by Mrs. Jan Strausser of Reading.

Mrs. Quigley, a graduate of Reading High School and Kutztown State College, is an elementary school teacher in Reading.

Mr. Quigley was graduated from the University and is teaching at Gov. Mifflin Junior High School, Reading. He served in the Air Force and received his master's degree in education from Penn State.

When they return from their New England trip the Quigleys will reside at 94 Mull Ave., Sinking Spring.

The couple was honored at a pre-wedding party given by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Clarence Henry.
